Governor-General's Achievement
Awards

An Arm of the Governor-General's Programme for Excellence

Nomination Form

Do you know someone who has made significant impact within their community locally and has excelled academically despite their humble beginnings? If this person is a citizen of Jamaica and has never received a National Award, you could nominate him or her for special recognition by His Excellency The Governor-General of Jamaica.

ABOUT THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S ACHIEVEMENT AWARD (GGAA)

The Governor-General's Achievement Awards scheme has been in existence since 1991. It was set up under the distinguished patronage of then Governor-General the Most Honourable Sir Howard Cooke, ON, GCMG, GCVO, CD with the financial support of the Building Societies and The Gleaner Company Limited, the Custodes, as well as representatives from the Jamaica Teachers' Association and Legal, Business, Community and Religious Organizations.

The Programme got off to a national start under the leadership of the Custodes in the various parishes where committees were formed to promote, distribute, receive and assess nominations from the public.

In 2007, then Governor-General, His Excellency the Most Honourable Professor Sir Kenneth O. Hall, ON, OJ, expanded the Programme to recognize academic excellence along with volunteerism among persons in the 18-24 years and 25-35 years age categories.

Under the leadership of current Governor-General, His Excellency the Most Honourable Sir Patrick Allen ON, GCMG, CD, KSt.J, the Governor-General's Achievement Awards programme continues to be recognized as one of Jamaica's most successful and prestigious.

GGAA EMBLEMS

At a special County event, Award Recipients each receive a plaque together with a Citation which is signed by the Governor-General and the Custos for their parish. Each awardee is also pinned with a badge to be worn as a symbol of pride for their contribution to Nation Building.
